DECISION AND DIRECTION OF ELECTION

Upon a petition duly filed under Section 9(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, herein referred to as the Act, a hearing was held before a hearing officer of the National Labor Relations Board, herein referred to as the Board.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 3(b) of the Act, the Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to the undersigned.

Upon the entire record in this proceeding,¹ the undersigned finds:

1. The hearing officer's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed.

2. The Employer is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the Act and it will effectuate the purposes of the Act to assert jurisdiction herein.²
3. The labor organizations involved claim to represent certain employees of the Employer.³
4. A question affecting commerce exists concerning the representation of certain employees of the Employer within the meaning of Section 9(c)(1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.⁴
5. The following employees of the Employer constitute a unit appropriate for the purpose of collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9(b) of the Act :

All full-time and regular part-time nurses aides employed by the Employer at its Berkeley Heights, New Jersey facility, excluding all dietary employees, housekeeping employees, laundry employees, dieticians, department heads, maintenance employees, LPNs, RNs patient activity employees, professional employees, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act, and all other employees.⁵

² The Employer is a New Jersey corporation engaged in the operation of a nursing home at its Berkeley Heights, New Jersey facility, its only facility involved herein.

⁴ The parties agree that there is no contract bar or other bar to an election in this matter.

⁵ The unit description is in accord with the agreement of the parties which I find to be appropriate for purposes of collective bargaining. There are approximately 57 employees employed in the unit.

The Intervenor, contrary to the Employer, declined to stipulate that the Petitioner is a labor organization under the Act. The record reveals and it is undisputed that the Petitioner was formed for the purpose of dealing with employers concerning wages, rates of pay, hours and working conditions on behalf of employees it seeks to represent. As of the date of the hearing in this matter, the Petitioner had no collective bargaining agreements with any employers. The record reveals that the Petitioner intends to allow employees to participate in its future affairs by allowing employees to elect officers and shop stewards to govern their affairs. The sole representative of the Petitioner is its Business Agent, Edward Bigham, Jr. I have also taken administrative notice that the showing of interest submitted by the Petitioner in support of the instant petition authorizes the Petitioner to represent employees and negotiate on their behalf.

With regard to labor organization status, there are essentially only two requirements for a party to meet to achieve the status of a labor organization as defined by Section 2(5) of the Act: first, it must be an organization in which employees participate; and second, it must exist for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment. Alto Plastics Manufacturing Corp., 136 NLRB 850 (1962). I find that the Petitioner has satisfied the definitional requirements. In this connection, noting that the Petitioner has submitted a requisite showing of interest where employees have designated it to represent them in collective bargaining, that based thereon it has filed the instant petition and that it intends to bargain on behalf of employees in the event it becomes their representative, I find that the Petitioner is an organization in which employees participate within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act. Grand Lodge

International Association of Machinists, 159 NLRB 137 (1966); Pittsburgh Limestone Corporation, 77 NLRB 710 (1948). Further, there is no evidence that the Petitioner is either directly or indirectly affiliated with any other labor organization. Cf. Stewart-Warner Corp., 273 NLRB 1736 (1985).

Based upon the above, and the record as a whole, I find the Petitioner to be a labor organizations under Section 2(5) of the Act. Ana Colon, Inc. 266 NLRB 611, 612 (1983); Alto Plastics Manufacturing Corp., supra.

Accordingly, it is hereby directed that within seven (7) days of the date of this Decision, three (3) copies of an election eligibility list containing the full names and addresses of all the eligible voters shall be filed by the Employer with the undersigned, who shall make the list available to all parties to the election. North Macon Health Care Facility, 315 NLRB 359 (1994).
